

2007 Healing Fields

Submitted by Cynthia

Just to let all know that the dates for this years Healing Fields are Wednesday November 7th thru Monday November 12th Wednesday, the ceremonies will start at 8:00am, and closing ceremonies on Monday will begin at 4:00pm.

We should start marking the grid lines Sunday and finish on Monday Rebar will be placed Tuesday night. Naturally I am again asking all of you for your help.

Thanks to all of the wonderful volunteers, last years event was fantastic, and we expect that this year will be even more memorable.

With the response last year, it looks as if many more will volunteer this year. For those who want to read, please note that if we have more than enough volunteers, those who read last year will be first, and then we will use the dates of acceptance for the rest. So please let me know ASAP if you want to volunteer this year, and what you want to do; read; assemble the flags; mark grid lines; place rebar; work security; tear down after. Please also get me the e-mail addresses of those who want to volunteer.

Last but not least, we do need sponsors. If you know of anyone who wishes to help sponsor the event, please get me the information, and we will contact him or her.

Again, all my thanks to all of you.
